

SEPTEMBER 11 & 12, 2014

SAVE THE DATE

Join us for 2 days of Caribbean Science workshops

EPA Region 2 and the Caribbean Science Consortium will be holding workshops for Caribbean-related science. Day 1 will focus on the Non-PRASA water systems and the ongoing work to provide safe drinking water to the island. Day 2 will focus on citizen science and how to empower your communities to seek solutions to environmental and public health issues. Space will be provided by the University of Puerto Rico – Río Piedras, and registration will be FREE!
